stating that the Corporation has in law absolute powers in the matter of sanctioning advance increments and allowances to the staff and when it has such powers it can legitimately be inferred that the power ~~in~~ of condonation of the break in service of such an official for a period 29 days comes within the powers of the Corporation.

12) The Standing Committee of the Corporation has not framed service regulations for its employees as required under Section 94 of the Corporation Act and in the absence of the service regulations, the power of condonation of break in service can be assumed to vest with the Corporation on the strength of the Ruling quoted above The Law Secretary to Government may also be consulted in the matter. The Corporation may also take up the work of framing its service rules as required under the Act.
